

EYFS - Home Learning Rainbow Challenges

Please record what your child makes, learns or discovers.

Go on a coin hunt and collect loose coins in your house. Can you sort them into different types and learn how much they are worth? Can you make a shop with your toys, create price tags and practise buying things with the coins?	Junk modelling-go on a recycling hunt for used boxes, tubes and pots. Can you make an amazing model with them? Can you write about your model? Can you identify the 3D shapes you have used?	Can you build a den? Use sheets and pegs to make an awesome den. Once you have finished it, can you take a photograph? Can you make a sign to tell people about your den? Can you create a list of rules or a password to enter your den? Why not read your favourite book in your den?
Go on a technology hunt in your house. Can you find all the things that need to be plugged in or turned on to work? Can you write or draw the things you find?	Choose your favourite farm animal. Use the internet and books (with an adult) to find out facts about the animal. Find out whether it comes from an egg, how it grows, what it eats, where it lives, how big it is, what it needs to be healthy etc. Choose how you record what you find out-poster, booklet, video, model	Go on an old photo hunt in your house. Ask your parents to get out their old photos and talk about them to you. How have people changed? What was different when mummy and daddy were younger? and when Grandparents were younger?
Practice your speaking skills. Ask your parents to help you telephone a relative. Tell your relative all about what you have been learning at school. Ask Who? What? Where? How? Why? Questions about your relative's day.	Go onto Purple Mash and complete a task in your to-do folder.	Go outside in your garden and notice signs of Spring, can you find buds on trees, flowers growing, baby animals? Take photos or draw what you find.

Read your school reading book in a different place each day. Record down all the different places. Give each location a happy, ok, sad face rating of where is the best place to read.	Make an obstacle course outside like Ninja Warrior, what can you use to travel over, under and through? Time yourself to complete the challenge using a grown up's phone, can you improve your time?	Teach the adults in your house about Cosmic Yoga. Ask everyone to join in. Find free Cosmic yoga videos on Youtube https://www.youtube.com/user/CosmicKidsYoga
Download and play on the APP 'Teach Your Monster to Read' to support your phonic knowledge. If you do not have access it the APP please see the folder for more phonic challenges.	Have a go at the tablespoon cooking challenge. Recipe attached. Hold a mini bake off, who's tastes the nicest? Who's is the neatest design?	Can you learn to write your full name? Is your letter formation correct? Are your letters sitting on the line? Is there a finger space between your first and last name? Challenge yourself do you have any middle names you could learn?
Play a family board game to practice your turn taking skills. Remember to celebrate everyone's wins.	Use either a real computer keyboard or the attached image of a keyboard to practise finding the keys to 'type' your full name to improve your speed at logging in	Have a go at completing a "Finding the total Challenge" each day! See attached file
Can you create your own story and become an author for the day? First think ... Who is your character? Where is your story set? What is the problem in your story? What could be the solution in your story? Remember to use once upon a time... next ... because... unfortunately ... fortunately ... finally ... the end You could make a booklet to record your story down, draw a story map or even act out your story to your family.

Have fun! 😊
