If you want to make any other comments, positive or negative, please use the space below. Thank you for your time to complete this

Overall the support given to both children was excellent. Home learning during the mornings was much more productive. I felt the motivation wasn't always there from the children to do the afternoon topic. The afternoons were definitely more of a struggle.

I would like to sincerely thank the teachers for all their hard work balancing at home and in class learning under such difficult circumstances. It wasn't easy to keep the children motivated during lockdown, but talking to their teachers every day helped enormously, as did seeing the comments on their work and counting up their weekly house points.

The main thing that was difficult was that it was hard for the children to interact with each other socially.

The general support from school and the homeschooling materials were excellent, however we frequently found there was too much to do and too much adult supervision involved. This just wasn't practical with other children at home and with our own work to attend to. We completed as much homeschooling as possible but as a parent found this time particularly difficult and very stressful.

The workload at times was slightly overwhelming, as a working parent juggling my own work and my child's work. It took a little time to get a routine that worked, for us all. The support from Miss Robinson was amazing and the daily team meetings were great, it made the children working from home included in the school day

Work sent from school was excellent, at times the quantity was too much. I felt school were there if I needed extra support, although I didn't use it.

It was difficult switching between different online platforms e.g story time on YouTube, recorded lesson, phonics games, mathletics and oak academy all in one morning. I found my child was less engaged with this style of teaching. We found the CPG books worked well for us as did joining a live lesson/recorded lesson followed by a worksheet.

Assemblies and live lessons helped children feel included and kept spirits up. Well done!

We didn't manage to engage in many nursery level activities as the older children needed support, but used some workbooks so he could be like his big brothers.

School did extremely well to balance home workers and children in school. Work set was varied and engaging and support from school, with both face to face support at daily catch ups, assemblies and answering queries and questions was very good. Overall, the system worked very well but for our child, there is no substitute to actually being in school and he is much happier being back.

Re the comment on too much adult support- this is only because I was working full time and had a baby. On occasion the workload was a lot and we hadn't finished it by the end of the day. Overall though, I thought the home learning was fantastic and we are very lucky to have had such wonderful support.

I think the home learning and support throughout this time has been brilliant, it's been a difficult time for everyone but the staff have really outdone themselves, thank you so much for everything you do for our children

Thank you to all the staff for your continued support in doing your best to keep the children engaged and learning

I think the home learning has been good this term. If we had to go back to it we would like a few more live lessons. Let's hope we don't!

Thank you to all the teachers and head teacher for all their support and hard work to ensure our children's learning went as smoothly as possible.

We found it a very difficult time. As parents working full-time. There was good work but too much sole working. I would have preferred for my child to be on Teams Lessons.

The School has catered well for my child's physical and psychological well being since returning. Despite the challenges of COVID the school has maintained a normal routine and my child has had a smooth transition.

I think the way that the school handed the whole situation was excellent, and the teaching staff were exceptional .

We really appreciate the efforts of all staff (both teaching and support) with the excellent provision given during lockdown, especially given the very difficult circumstances and the day-before notice given by the Government. Out of all teaching establishments primary school staff have most certainly had to work the hardest; preparing lockdown learning material whilst still teaching face-to-face. Supplying both the online and printed material, and giving feedback on it, must have been a monumental effort by all staff and it occurred with very few 'errors' (I think we make more errors in one single day than were made by all staff during the entire lockdown!). There has been much talk in the media of how badly affected school-age children will have been during lockdown because of the lost hours of teaching. You have all most certainly limited any effect of the loss of in-school teaching by providing a range of excellent resources, getting the balance between home-learning and play just right (please note our response that states that our children found the overall range of work both 'interesting and engaging' and 'okay' was due to the difficulties of turning home into a place of learning and not due to the material provided). We both really enjoyed going through the material and I would say learnt as much as the boys did!

The great strength of Stottesdon Primary School is how much the staff care about the welfare and progression of the pupils and this shone though during lockdown. So, a very large sincere thank you to you all!

p.s. we would bring in a very large box of chocolates for all staff but due to Covid restrictions and the fact we needed to eat them during the more difficult home-learning days to aid coping with the day, I'm afraid we can't.

I did think for little ones some of the work quite

I think you, as a school, have handled the whole situation amazingly. In comparison to friends and their experiences, you have outshone massively. Thankyou!

Would of liked more face to face teaching via teams.

I feel that virtual lessons would have been more appropriate. My child may actually have engaged more

The school has done a fantastic job this lockdown with very little time to prepare. Learning packs were provided each week, which saved printing from home and the fact that all work had to be handed in on a weekly basis this time round, made my son more motivated to get things done. He looked forward to the feedback from his teachers which was always positive. Well done Mrs McKay and Mrs King.

School lunches have not been adequate. Not sure why hot meals couldn't be provided still. My daughter was happy in school and we're grateful for the place and care received.

Thanks for all your efforts during these very challenging time for children

Thank you for the excellent support provided to my daughter by her class teachers and the school as a whole.

Thank you to all the staff for managing to provide a wraparound to nursery. The support has been first class and extremely needed during the last year. We appreciate all that you do for our children xx

School/ staff have adapted brilliantly in constantly changing circumstances and restrictions and have provided what I think is the best service and care for the children under the hardest of times
